I Wish to Thank

The good people of Paris for their most liberal patronage which they have accorded me in the past. My business has exceeded expectations.

Now as the holidays are approaching, I want to call your attention to the fine line of Candies which I will in a few days place in my windows. I handle the best that comes to this market, such as Lowneys, Gunthers, Doggets and others. Mann's Parisian Chocolates that is packed for me is very fine. Home-made Candy a specialty. With a full assortment of Fruit, Nuts, &c., I cordially invite Soda Water the year around. Hot Drinks in season.

Yours for business,

C. P. MANN.

Bourbon Circuit Court.

Judge R. L. Stout resumed the trial of Commonwealth cases after Thanksgiving holiday.

FRIDAY.

The first case on trial was that of the Commonwealth vs. Tobe Rice, a negro, under indictment for shooting at another without wounding. Rice was represented by Judge Harmon Stitt, and after hearing the testimony the jury brought in a verdict of acquittal.

Sam Calamese, a negro charged with cutting Lon McDuffy in a difficulty which occurred on Eighth street, was placed on trial and after hearing the testimony, was given one year in the penitentiary.

Jesse Murray, a negro, under indictment for robbing the residence of A. J. Skillman, pleaded guilty and was given a term of two years in the penitentiary.

At the instance of the Commonwealths Attorney the case of Ed. Johnson, a negro, under indictment for grand larceny, was continued till the March term of court, on account of the absence of important witnesses.

SATURDAY.

Saturday morning the case of the Commonwealth vs. Ben Lewis and Jesse Claypool, under joint indictment for robbery, was called and went over till Monday. Judge Stout then excused the petit jurors till Monday at 9 o'clock.

In the case of Sam Calamese, the negro who was Friday given two years in the penitentiary for cutting Lon McDuffy, notice was given that motion for a new trial would be made.

MONDAY.

Yesterday the case of Ben Lewis, charged with robbery was entered into and given to the jury in the afternoon at 4 o'clock. Jury failed to agree and was discharged.

County Attorney T. E. Moore, Jr., represented the Commonwealth in the absence of Col. R. B. Franklin and Hon. E. M. Dickson represented the defendant.

This case was continued from Saturday morning on account of the absence of John Allen Dodson, an important witness. Dodson was on hand yesterday and testified that Lewis had given him a dollar to go away Saturday.

After the case was turned over to the jury Judge Stout called Dodson before him and after propounding several questions to him, fined him $30 and 30 hours in jail for contempt of Court, saying he wished the law would allow him to fine him more. He then ordered the Sheriff to take him before the grand jury and indict Lewis for buying a witness to not appear in Court after being summoned.

The next case called for trial was Rebecca Rudisill vs. W. A. Bacon, which is a civil action.

DEATHS.

Richard H. Jett, of Georgetown, died of typhoid fever Friday afternoon. He was the successful candidate for the office of Circuit Court Clerk in recent primary in Scott County, and a very popular gentleman. He was aged 59 years.

—Hoard W. Nutter, one of the most successful and prominent farmers of Scott county, died Friday night at his home near Payne's Depot, of Bright's disease in his 53rd year.

—The remains of little Elizabeth Weathers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Weathers, formerly of Paris, who died Friday in Lexington, were brought to this city on the 3 o'clock interurban car Sunday and interred in the Paris cemetery, the funeral services being held at the grave.

—Capt. Phil B. Thompson, Sr., one of the most noted criminal lawyers in Kentucky, died at Harrodsburg, Saturday. He was a veteran of the Mexican War and with three sons fought through the Civil War on the Confederate side.

—George Clay, aged 72 years, died at the home of Mrs. Patsy Clay, of Georgetown pike, Saturday evening of apoplexy. Mr. Clay was in town Friday in apparently good health. He was the son of R. P. Clay and Lucinda Parson Clay and lived in Bourbon all of his life. He united with the Silas Baptist church in 1870, and was never married. Funeral services were held at the grave in Paris cemetery yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by Rev. G. W. Clarke, of the Baptist church.

—Mrs. Eliza Salomon, aged 75 year, the widow of the late Solomon Salomon, both formerly of this city, died Friday at the home of Dr. Wm. Kelly, in Covington. The remains arrived here Saturday morning at 11 o'clock and taken to St. Peter's Episcopal church, where funeral services were held, conducted by Rev. R. S. Litsinger. Burial in Paris cemetery.

Mrs. Salomon was a most excellent Christian woman and her many friends in this city, her old home, regret to hear of her death.

Mrs. Salomon is survived by one brother, Col. R. M. Kelley, of Louisville, and one sister, Mrs. W. R. McComas, of Covington, and three nieces, Mrs. Cordie Parker, Mrs. Geo. S. Varden and Mrs. W. T. Talbott, all of Paris.

Can be reached over Templin Lum-
Co.'s phone.

Funeral and Burial Notice.
